JULIANA AREIAS

Juliana was personally introduced to the Bossa Nova founders when she was a teenager by legendary Brazilian Music historian and journalist Ruy Castro. It was Ruy who nicknamed her “The Bossa Nova Baby”. This direct and unique learning experience inspired her to become a professional singer and songwriter.

Her debut original album 'Bossa Nova Baby' won 'Best Brazilian Music Album' at the Focus Brazil Awards in the USA, and hot off the heels of this success, the album charted in the US Jazz Top 100.

Juliana Areias has also previously recorded for the poet, composer and Brazilian diplomat Marcio Catunda, 6 of his albums produced respectively in Switzerland (Anima Lirica -1997), Bulgaria (Crescente - 2000), Brazil (Mistica Beleza - 2003/ Itinerario Sentimental - 2008) , Spain (Agua de Flores - 2009) and Portugal (O Jardineiro da Vida - 2010).

Always working in the music circuit, Juliana Areias lived in Europe (Switzerland) and New Zealand for many years prior to moving to Australia. Juliana Areias has performed on major stages internationally including the Sydney Opera House, Ronnie Scott’s Jazz Club in London, the Green Room in New York, the Montreux Jazz Festival in Switzerland, The Fukiagi Hall in Japan, the Auckland Festival in New Zealand and the legendary Beco das Garrafas in Rio de Janeiro.

Now it's your turn to feel spellbound by the Bossa Nova Baby, Juliana Areias!
